Best practices.

Title: Swanyasiddha (Women Empowerment Cell)

Goal: To empower female students

              To strengthen gender equality

              To train female students in self defence.

The context:

The education campus needs to be free of all kinds of discriminations including gender and caste. To emancipate female students socially, safe and secure campus is a necessity.

The practice: Our College runs swanyasiddha cell which is headed by a female teacher. This cell organise various activities to achieve gender equality like Judo-Karate training, personality development workshops for female students only, speeches of female elites regarding rights of women and various laws.

Evidence of success: female students feel free and safe in the campus. Tribal and rural female students get a platform in the college to express their potential.

Problem: Financial problems to organise various activities.

Title: Communication Skill Workshop.

Goal: To improve communication skills of the students.

To make them aware about sub-skills of language.

To inculcate habits of speaking in English on various situations.

To develop interpersonal skills of the students.

The context: The world is known as the world of communication .To succeeds one needs good communication skills. With the help of good communication skills students are able to cope in any situation.

The practice: The department of English organises classes and guest lectures on communication skills. Two classes per week and guest lecturers have been organised to groom their interpersonal skills.

Evidence of success: Students started taking interest in spoken communication. Students have been showing a confidence while speaking in English.

Problem: Students belongs to educationally poor background.
